From the Editor's Desk.....

It is a great pleasure for me to present this Newsletter before you as a member of KV No.2, NHPC Banbasa. All the people who have contributed for the same have tried their best to give to showcase the day to day development in their Vidyalaya.

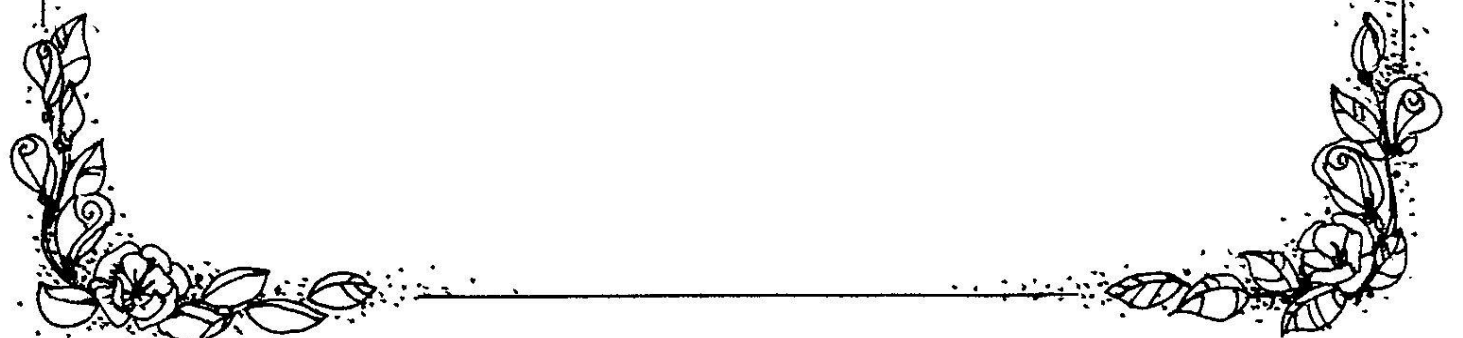

I hope the newsletter will provide you the clear picture of what the teachers, students & community is sharing with each other. Your valuable suggestions are always welcome; I congratulate the students and teaching faculty for this success.
